OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER

WA-KEENEY, KANS., OCTOBER 14, 1911

33RD YEAR—NUMBER 32

USE YOUR HOMESTEAD RIGHT

320 Acre Homestead in Utah Under the New Enlarged Homestead Act. No residence required. No irrigation required.

This non-residence applies to Utah Only. Any man or woman who is twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States and who is not the owner of more than 160 acres in any state, and has not used his homestead right, is entitled to file on 160 acres in the State of Utah. The law requires that the entryman shall cultivate, or have cultivated, 40 acres within two years from the date of entry, 40 acres the third year and 80 acres the fourth and fifth years, making 160 acres under cultivation at the end of five years when a patent can be secured to the land. The applicant must make affidavit that he has personally examined the land. 320,000 acres of land have been entered under enlarged homestead act in Utah during the past twelve months.

There is land now available on the main trans-continental line of the San Pedro Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad. Excellent crops have been grown in that vicinity during the present season and much new land is being broken up by large traction engine outfits.

It will cost you $100 for our services in locating you on the land and we will pay all of the United States Land Office fees for making entry. Our engineers and cruisers know the country. All that it will cost you in addition to our fee is your traveling expenses.

The 320 Colonist rate to Utah points from September 15th to October 15th will bring hundreds into this territory and these desirable lands will soon be entered. Wire or write us for full information and get reservations on early trains in September so that you may have first choice of lands. First come, first served.

Your opportunity for these lands never come again.

Our city laundry conducted by Chas. Maben and wife of Stockton ceased operation Wednesday night, October 4, when the aforesaid parties took French leave without even saying "by your kindly permission" to their patrons. Just why Maben & Co. shut off so suddenly is somewhat of a mystery as the business was flourishing and well patronized. No trace of them has yet been found and Miss Betty Penny who learned of their sudden flight immediately put an attachment on the contents of the building for quite a large unpaid board bill. Quite a number are holding the sack. A number of bundles of laundry were left which parties owning them were able to recover. All help was unpaid. This deal is a little similar to the Wassam stunt a couple years ago when a slick guy fleeced the innocent. There is some talk of home parties taking up the laundry work and we confidently believe in the hands of good responsible parties it would be a success.

Last Tuesday evening Miss Margaret Swiggett entertained a number of her friends at her pleasant home. A musical guessing contest created a great deal of amusement and resulted in Mrs. Myerly guessing the greatest number of musical terms hence securing the first prize a pretty plaster of paris plaque of Wagner. The consolation prize a gaily decorated horn with exceptionally clear musical tones went to Mrs. V. L. Gayhart. The evening was most pleasantly spent in social intercourse, music and other amusements. Dainty refreshments were served after which the guests departed all agreeing that the evening had been a most delightful one. Those present were: Mrs. Blazer who lives near Denver and is a guest at the Gleason home, Mrs. Gayhart and Mrs. Armstrong of Fort Scott, Mesdames Ufford, Blair, A. L. Marshall, W. L. Larabee, C. Hille, Hardman, Myerly, Gleason, Gibson, Steinberger, Givler and Miss Julia Blair.

The army doctor pronounces the leprosy case of Mrs. Quint a true case of the disease as found in the Philippines but of light form, but the child hardly perceptible if at all. Dr. Crumline was here Sunday in consultation with Dr. Snyder and the board of county commissioners and they will send her to the state hospital at Rosedale, near Kansas City, Kansas, where she will have the best of care and the case watched.—Hays Free Press.

Wednesday, Martin Melody, a young man of Trego county came here and got on the right side of the Probate Judge, later he got Rev. Hale to keep a secret. The evening train from the east brought a sweet little lady, Miss Adah Bottrell from Parker, Linn county, Kansas, and it did not take long for the new Methodist minister, Rev. Hale, to perform his first marriage ceremony in Kansas, and the happy couple left for their new home near Wa-Keeney.—Hays Free Press.

OBITUARY

Died at her home in this city, Wednesday, October 4, 1911, Mrs. A. L. Gleason after a lingering illness and many years of semi-invalidism.

Mrs. Gleason's name before her marriage was Harriet Amelia Fischer, and she was born in Theresa Village, N. Y., August 31, 1833. While yet a young woman she went to Iowa and was there united in marriage to A. L. Gleason at Earlville, April 14, 1869. Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Gleason moved to Colorado; all of their children seven in number were born in that state.

Thirty years ago the entire family came to Wa-Keeney where they have since resided.

In the years that have passed Mrs. Gleason was noted for her hospitality and she was a woman who delighted to have her friends near her and her home will long be remembered for the many happy occasions when friends assembled beneath her roof.

It was here the best days of her life were spent and when her last hours came her bedside was surrounded by her children and relatives.

Mrs. Gleason for many years was a great sufferer and was confined to her home a great deal of the time. Death often visited her home and took her husband, two sons and a daughter, all of which saddened her life unspeakably but she bore these sorrows with fortitude and resignation.

Those most intimately associated with her knew her best and found many admirable qualities that endeared her to them. She leaves two sons and a number of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

On Friday, October 6, the funeral was held at the Presbyterian church and was conducted by the pastor Rev. Allison. She was laid to rest in the Wa-Keeney cemetery beside her husband and children where she will sleep until the Resurrection Day.

Card of Thanks

To the kind friends and neighbors who so willingly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved mother we wish to express our heartfelt thanks. We also wish to thank the Eastern Star, Good Will Society, Kensington and Locust Clubs for their beautiful floral offerings.

Death of Major Edward G. Russell

Major Edward G. Russell, a veteran of the civil war and for twenty years a resident of Los Angeles, died at his residence, No. 1247 Ionian street, October 4. His death was not unexpected, as he had been sick for six months with dropsy. He was 87 years old.

Almost exactly fifty years ago—October 9, 1861—Russell enlisted in the Eighth Illinois Volunteer Cavalry and served until the close of the war. Promotion came fast for Russell and with each advancement he proved his value to the Union cause by some act of bravery.

When President Lincoln was assassinated, Major Russell took part in the search for Booth. He was detailed with Troop F, Eighth Illinois Cavalry and assisted in the pursuit, although another officer captured the assassin.

Major Russell took a prominent part in the battle of Malvern Hill, second battle of Bull Run, battle of Gettysburg, and the Culpeper Court-house Geeseboro Point sieges.

The late General John L. Beveridge, at one time governor of Illinois, was in command of the Eighth Illinois Volunteer Cavalry at the time Major Russell was first a member of it. The two were life-long friends and when Governor Beveridge died at Hollywood about one year ago it was a great shock for his comrade.

Major Russell was a member of Bartlett-Logan Post No. 6, G. A. R., during his residence in Los Angeles. Throughout the entire city he has been highly esteemed. He was a lovable old gentleman and a true friend.

Major Russell was born in Shrewsbury, Conn., April 1, 1824, and married Miss Mary E. Olcott there December 18, 1849. His wife died in 1862 and he never remarried. Major Russell was a pioneer of Chicago, taking up his residence in that city in 1850. He was a painting and decorating contractor there for forty-one years, and he came to Los Angeles in 1891, to live a retired life.

Two sons, Charles O. Russell of Chicago, and Edward G. Russell, a contractor of Los Angeles, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary R. Austin of Willowbrook, are living.

The funeral services were conducted under the auspices of the Bartlett-

Logan Post in the chapel of the Robert Sharp & Sons Undertaking Company.—Los Angeles (Cal.) Times.

Major Russell was a resident of this city in the early days.

The Ball Games

Each day of the fair there was a big game, and taken altogether it was a pretty fair bunch of games. On Wednesday, Arnold was to have played against the Ness City High School team, but owing to some difficulty, did not appear; so the school played against a "pick-up" from around Ness, and was victorious. Thursday afternoon, the game was between Highpoint and Ness City. With Daniels of Pawnee Rock, for pitcher, and Kerause of Wa-Keeney, catcher, the Ness club had one of the strongest batteries in this country; and this battery with good support, such as Cason of Ness, Meneley of Scott, and others equally as good, held a high hand throughout the game, bringing a score of 5 to 1. Highpoint also had some fine players, and we appreciate their work, because they are always ready and willing to enter into a game.

While there was some good playing on the part of both teams, the game was too slow and far too one-sided to be very interesting. The game Friday, Ness City versus McCracken, was the best game that has been played on the Ness City diamond for a long time. The battery for Ness was changed, George Smeed of Wa-Keeney, taking place of Daniels, as pitcher, with Keraus, as catcher, and they certainly did some good work. Henry Bondurant made a grand play. With the score standing 5 to 4 in favor of McCracken in the latter part of the game, Henry knocked a home run, but with no one on bases, it only brought in one tally, making the score 5 to 5. Then McCracken run one in in the last inning and Ness didn't make good when up at the last to bat, so McCracken held the victory 5 to 6, and they certainly have cause to be proud. Ness being defeated in this game was a great disappointment, but there will always be the consolation that they played a good, strong game from start to finish.—Ness News.

Judge Osborn Better

Judge Stephen J. Osborn, of Coffeyville, who recently underwent an operation at St. Margaret's hospital in Kansas City, Kan., is getting along splendidly. He is able to sit up at times and is rapidly regaining his strength. The judge maintains his jovial disposition and does not take the loss of a portion of his anatomy seriously. In a letter from Judge Osborn to his stenographer, Miss Irene Elliot, received Thursday morning the judge writes, "I am getting along just fine, so the toe-puller says." He wrote the letter himself and requested Miss Elliott to attend to certain legal business of the office.—Independence Reporter.

From District No. 48

Last Sunday the friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Flyr carried out a very pleasant surprise on them. At about 11 o'clock buggies, wagons and automobiles suddenly came over the hills from nearly all directions and stopped at the Flyr home and began unloading a lot of good things to eat. They then unhitched their teams and took possession of the place making themselves at home. As the day was an ideal autumn one with plenty of sunshine and warmth a thirty foot table was spread out doors where a bountiful dinner was served to sixty-four guests. After dinner many attended Sunday school after which Rev. Beason preached an excellent sermon. Let us say right here that there is Sunday school every Sunday at the Blue Ribbon school house one mile south of Joe Spena's place. Rev. Beason will probably preach there every alternate Sunday. The Sunday school people have erected a good substantial set of hitching posts and every one is invited and urged to come. We also have socials once or twice nearly every week which we believe is the best antidote against the blues this kind of a year. We have never yet lacked attendance the only trouble being a lack of house room. Tuesday night we met at the home of Wm. Smith and Friday night at the home of Mr. Spena. x

Anderson-Reynolds's Wedding at Ogallah

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Benson, Thursday, September 28, 1911, when her sister, Miss Cappatola R. Anderson, was united in marriage to Edgar R. Reynolds at high noon by Rev. Greene pastor of the M. E. church at Wa-Keeney.

The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's niece, Miss Lulu Benson, and Ruth Carney, a friend of the bride, and Master Carl Benson, the bride's nephew, and Judd Anderson, her brother.

The bride looked very pretty in a costume of changeable blue and tan satin and veil of white bobinet. The groom wore the usual black.

After the ceremony the bridal couple received congratulations after which a bountiful dinner was served to about twenty guests only immediate friends and relatives being invited.

The bride is an accomplished young lady and has lived here all her life.

The groom is an industrious young man and is respected by all who know him.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will make their future home in Oregon. Their many friends hate to see them go but nevertheless wish them all the success and happiness the world affords for two.

The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents consisting of silverware, table linen, etc.

$100 Reward $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. S. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
